

Name of Form:

Designation of Deputy Early Voting Clerks.

Section Reference:

Section 83.032, Texas Election Code.

Purpose:

To make a public record of persons authorized to handle the duties of conducting early voting.

Number of Copies Required:

One.

Completed by:

County Clerk or City Secretary if they are early voting clerk or authority appointing early voting clerk for other elections.

Filing Date:

Prior to assumption of duties by deputies.

Filed with:

Early Voting Clerk

Comments:

If it is necessary to appoint additional deputies after the beginning of early voting, another designation shall be completed to include the additional appointments.

Effective September 1, 2007, deputy early voting clerks appointed for the November General Elections in even-numbered years will be subject to the political party list procedure. This new law will require clerks at both the main and branch early voting locations to be appointed with equal representation between the political parties conducting primary elections in the county.

See Subchapter B of Chapter 83 for qualifications of deputy early voting clerks.
