

Figure: 26 TAC §745.8976

| If the provisional CCAL is issued: | The permit [is valid]: |
|---|---|
| (1) Under §745.8925 of this subchapter (relating to How does an applicant [do I] qualify for a provisional Child-Care Administrator's License (CCAL) if the applicant does [I do] not meet the management or supervisory experience required for a full CCAL?)₁ | (A) Is valid for [For] two years from the date Child Care Regulation (CCR) issues [we issue] the permit; and (B) Is not eligible for renewal. |
| (2) Under §745.8913(c) [§745.8913(b)] of this subchapter (relating to When can [Can my] licensure in another state qualify an applicant [me] for an administrator's license under this subchapter?)₁ | (A) Is valid for 180 days from the date CCR issues [after] the permit [is issued]; and (B) May be extended one time for an additional 180 days. |